

Our Ministry Staffing Model: Update from the Board

Sent Friday, October 30, 2026 · Broad View United

Dear friends,

We know these past days have been unsettling for many of you, and that you're carrying real questions and, for some, real hurt. We hear you, and we take what you're feeling and asking seriously. We are members of this community too, and we feel the weight of this season alongside you.

Some of what has been shared in recent days touches on personnel matters. These are confidential, to protect the dignity of everyone involved, including our ministers. For that reason, we aren't able to respond to each point individually. We do know many of you have questions, particularly about timelines and process, and we've heard clearly that the congregation needs more assurance than it currently has.

In early November, well ahead of the next congregational meeting (now confirmed for November 22 at 2pm in the Sanctuary), the Board will share a fuller letter explaining our reasoning and answering the questions we've heard. In the meantime, we ask everyone to extend care to one another and to all our ministry staff in what is a hard season for many.

The November newsletter HERE includes the results of the October 25 vote and details for the November 22 meeting, including remote voting.

Our door is open. Please write to board@broadviewunited.com or speak with any Board member. We'd much rather hear from you directly.

With gratitude,

The Board of Broad View United
